...to find your treasure

Following the Alabama Antique Trail, one will discover upscale antique galleries as well as a mélange of privately owned shops and multivendor malls with a mixture of antiques and vintage collectibles.

The antique shops are housed uniquely. One shop is made of recycled wood and tin; several shops are in period homes: cottages, bungalows, farmhouses, antebellum homes, and an authentic Alabama log cabin. Others are in historical buildings that were once country stores, barns, banks, post offices, pharmacies, and hardware stores. A few shops have been built specifically for showcasing the owners' antiques.

Every shop contains different items. One owner explained this by stating "Each dealer is guided by his or her own interests and personalities...which spark his or her imagination and desire for the unusual."

Antique-aholics will need to visit the trail often because the merchandise changes frequently. Many items are from Alabama family estates. Occasionally, items are original pieces from antebellum homes. One may find primitives your grandmother could have owned. European and Oriental imports, selected by local antique dealers while traveling abroad or brought here by early settlers, are also found in our state.

Alabama Antique Trail offers glassware, pottery, signs, silver, porcelain, military items, books, art, historical paper, and American, French, Japanese, Chinese, and English furnishings from the 18th, 19th, and early 20th centuries.

Most importantly, one will find southern hospitality and charming, knowledgeable people on the Alabama Antique Trail!
