To buy antiques, visit Natchez's seven antique shops with glorious 19th century antiques. To see and learn about 18th and 19th century antiques and decorative arts, visit Natchez during the Spring and Fall Pilgrimage and the 37th Natchez Antiques Forum.

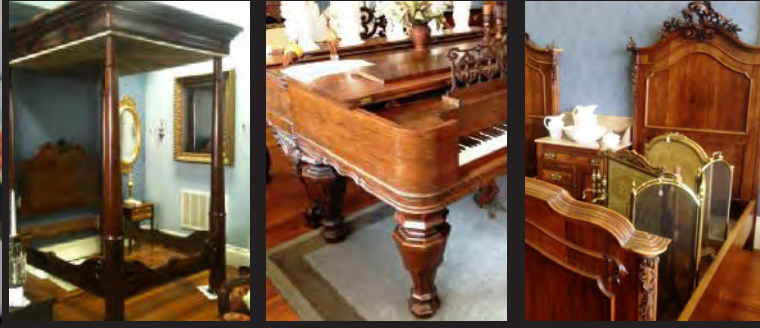

MISSISSIPPI Antique TRAIL.com

Following MississippiAntiqueTrail.com, one will discover upscale antique galleries as well as a mélange of privately owned shops and multivendor malls with a mixture of antiques and vintage collectibles. However, the most delightful treasures one will find along the trail are the charming and knowledgeable people.

Visit MississippiAntiqueTrail.com to see additional antique shop listings, hours, photos, websites and maps.

Drive south into the Coastal Region and find five stores in Hattiesburg. Dorothy Brown at Calico Mall has been in the antique business for over 50 years. It is apparent from the moment you walk into the door of McKenzies on Main that the owner is an experienced antique dealer and appraiser. Polly Esther sells many of their vintage items for movie sets.

Make a side trip to Picayune on your way to Antique Maison in Bay St. Louis then go to the beach for the day.

Go green and recycle...buy antiques!

...to find your treasure

Start in the North West Delta to find six antique stores. The picturesque Greenwood, a popular location for film productions, has three stores. Stop by The Onward Store, established in 1913, and famous for President Theodore Roosevelt's Teddy Bear Hunt. Then follow the trail north east where you will find historical Civil War battlefields and the homes of William Faulkner and Elvis. Several shops along the trail are in period cottages and historical buildings. Pontotoc has three antiques stores within walking distance of each other.

The Pines Region is rich with many tall trees and antique stores. It will take extra time in the area to visit Tennessee Williams home in Columbus. You may even wish to participate in the annual "Stella" yelling contest.

Follow the Capital/River Region's historical trail and the antique trail through Madison, Jackson, Vicksburg, Natchez, and on to visit the three stores in Woodville.
