

PURCHASE THE PAST ON THE ALABAMA ANTIQUE TRAIL

Follow the Alabama Antique Trail with stores for every taste and style. Birmingham is studded with antique stores to fill historic homes and new construction popping up around the city. Some focus on midcentury (Avondale Antiques), while others focus on repurposing in unique ways (Junky to Funky). Some are a collection of sellers, each with a personality all its own (Urban Suburban). Others create shabby chic by transforming the humble into the spectacular (Oak Mountain Emporium). Collectibles rule in shops such as What's on 2nd. The grande dame of antique shops is Hannah's Antique Mall, with thirty-five massive cases of jewelry, silver, and collectibles, plus twenty-seven thousand square feet of European and American antiques. The Alabama Antique Trail compiled a list to make it easy to buy memories. Pick up a Trail brochure at any of the shops.

www.alabamaantiquetrail.com